

for Knox Metro Families, Couples & Singles

You're invited to sign up to be paired with a local international college student to help welcome them to East Tennessee.

70% of international college students are never invited into an American family's home. We can change that!

All it takes is an occasional invitation to dinner or a special occasion in your home, a weekly encouraging connection (phone or text), maybe a care package during exams...the kinds of things you'd do for a college-age friend.

In exchange, you get to make a new friend, learn about a new culture, build relationships to share gospel conversations, and practice biblical hospitality.
